

Product Overview: Lemon PBX Phone system

Get that professional image when answering the phone with Lemon's fully customisable LemonPBX

The LemonPBX system can give any business all the features usually associated with large corporates, it can grow seamlessly with your organisation and make your communications more effective and convenient. The LemonPBX can really make improvements to your organisation and allow communication within the company and with the outside world more cost effective feature rich.

The benefits of LemonPBX are many:

- Significant cost reduction over traditional phone systems
- Feature Rich – Call queuing, holding, conferencing, transfers, voicemail, menu system
- Allows users to plug their phone in anywhere in the office - users simply take their phone, plug it into the nearest ethernet port and keep their existing number!
- Easy management, reducing maintenance costs
- Enhanced control of phone systems through management & logging.
- No need for separate phone wiring – use computer network

Full feature list of LemonPBX

- Callcenter style queuing
- Caller ID
- Call Recording
- Internal Transfers
- Transfers to external numbers (e.g. Mobiles)
- Voicemail
- PIN number access (e.g. priority support lines)
- Grouping of phones (e.g. one call rings multiple phones)
- A highly customisable call flow and routing system *
- Geographic independence (e.g. offices in Germany and the UK can share the same PBX and transfer calls between them) *
- Mapping of DDIs (phonenumber) to individual telephones
- Mapping of phone numbers to groups of phones (also called Pilot numbers or virtual numbers)
- Complete logs of any calls made or received
- A customisable Menu system (e.g. "press 1 for sales, 2 for ... ")
- Call parking
- Customisable Music on hold *
- Call conferencing
- SMS to email (via BTText) *
- Free Softphones (for mac/linux/windows)

Prices start at £1700 including 5 phones, with additional phones costing just £90.

For more information, place an order, or discuss how Lemon's PBX system can benefit you, please call us on 020 8878 2138.

* Features marked with a star are not included in the core package